HYMN OF THE MONTH

HOW GREAT THOU ART

English Words by Stuart K. Hine, 1899

Music Arrangement by Stuart K. Hine and
Manna Music of Swedish folk Melody

Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised, and His greatness is unsearchable.

~ Psalm 145:3

This is a fine twentieth century hymn of praise that has become a favorite with God's people during the last three decades. Its popularity is due in large part to its wide use by favorite gospel singers, notably George Beverly Shea. Although introduced to the American audiences when Mr. James Caldwell sang "How Great Thou Art" at Stony Brook Bible Conference on Long Island in 1951, it was not until Cliff Barrows and Beverly Shea of the Billy Graham Evangelistic Team used it during the famed London Crusade in Harringay Arena that "How Great Thou Art" started to become universally well-known.

The original Swedish text was a poem entitled "o Store Gud", written by a Swedish pastor, The Reverend Carl Boberg, in 1886. In addition to being one of the leading evangelical preaches of this day. Boberg was also the successful editor of the periodical Sanningsvitnet. His inspiration for this text is said to have come from a visit to a beautiful country estate on the southeast coast of Sweden. He was suddenly caught in midday thunderstorms with awe-inspiring moments of flashing violence, followed by a clear brilliant sun. Soon afterwards he heard the calm, sweet songs of the birds in nearby trees.

O Lord my God, when I in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds Thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed!

When thru the woods and forest glades I wander
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees,
When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur
And hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze,

And when I think that God, His Son not sparing,
Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in
That on the cross my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin!

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart
Then I shall bow in humble adoration
And thee proclaim, my God, how great Thou art!

REFRAIN

Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to Thee
How great thou art, how great Thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior God, to Thee.
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!

JUSTIN SCOTT

The Jubilee Majestic Concert Choir is excited to welcome Justin L. Scott, our newest member, whose passion for music and dedication to service make him an extraordinary addition to our choir family. Let's get to know Justin and the remarkable journey that has led him to join us.

A Journey Through Education and Music

Justin's educational journey began in Clinton, MD at Clinton Grove Elementary School in Pre-K before he moved to Waldon Woods Elementary School for grades K-3. He continued his studies at the Bishop John T. Walker School for Boys in Washington, DC from grades 4-6, where he joined the esteemed Bishop Walker Chorus, performing at notable venues such as the National Cathedral. His passion for music and singing has been evident from an early age. Justin completed his middle school years at Stephen Decatur Middle School (grades 7-8) and graduated from Surrattsville High School, where he continued to excel academically and in extracurricular activities.

Exemplary Leadership in JROTC and Civil Air Patrol

Justin's dedication to service is evident in his remarkable achievements in both JROTC and the Civil Air Patrol. He achieved the rank of Cadet Lieutenant Colonel in the Air Force JROTC, where he served as Battalion Commander and Wing Commander. In these roles, he oversaw all cadets, assigned positions, taught lessons, and led classes. He is known by many of the Surrattsville teachers as "Mr. ROTC." As a Cadet Chief Master Sergeant in the Civil Air Patrol, Justin held various positions, including Flight Commander, Flight Sergeant, and Cadet Advisory Council roles. His service has been recognized with the Civil Air Patrol's Cadet Achievement Award, the COVID-19 Service Ribbon, and the Red Service Ribbon with Bronze Clasp for over five years of dedicated service.

A Commitment to Faith and Community

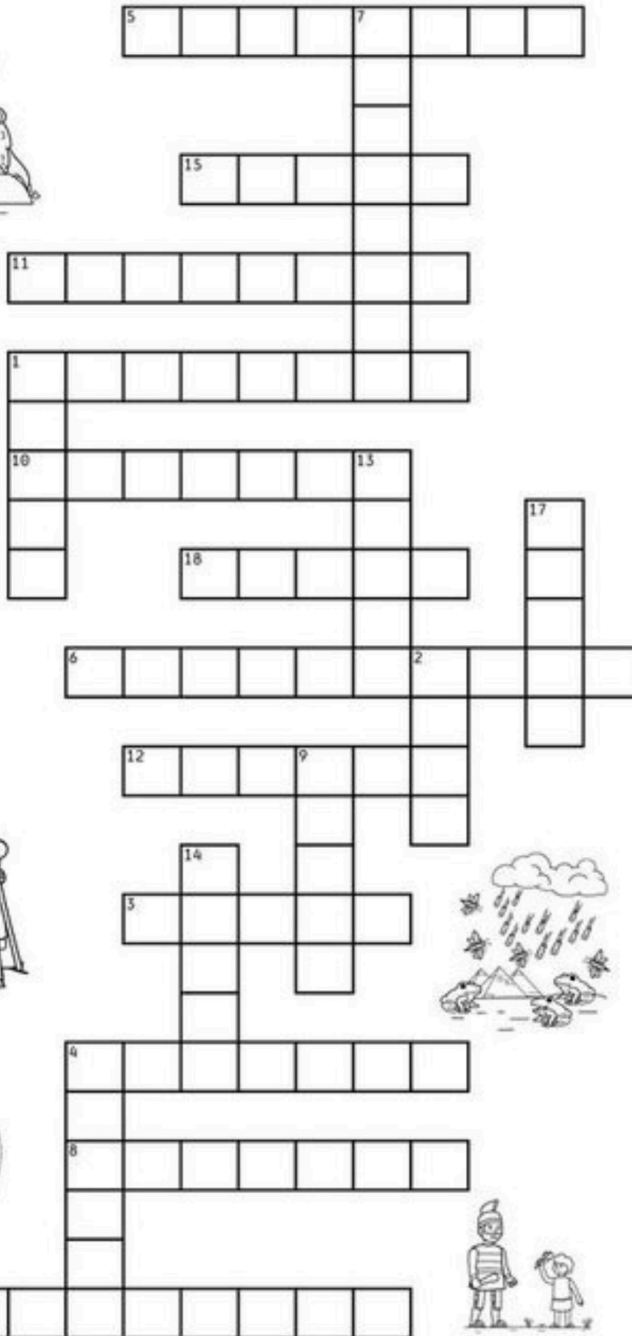

Justin was baptized on February 18, 2024 at St. Stephen Baptist Church in Temple Hills, MD and is actively involved in various ministries at the church. He sings with the One Voice Choir, Kings Men's Choir, and the Praise Team and is also part of the Security,

LIBRA

- Dr. Kirdell Minor, 22nd

Libra is an air sign represented by the scales, (interestingly, the only inanimate object of the zodiac), an association that reflects Libra's fixation on balance and harmony. Libras, when they are regularly coupled, must be careful about seeking attention outside the agreed-upon boundaries of their relationship. Since they try to keep everyone happy and engaged, they may find themselves tempted to push the limits of their agreements with their partners. People-pleasing Libras must remember that the happiness of their loved ones and the health of their relationships is more important than maintaining the attention of distant admirers. They're affectionate and sympathetic and intensely interested in people. They love entertaining and lots of good food, which means they're forever dieting. They're also the world's biggest spenders.

SCORPIO

- Lucius Miller, 27th

Scorpio is one of the most misunderstood signs of the zodiac. Because of its incredible passion and power. In fact, Scorpio is a water sign that derives its strength from the psychic, emotional realm. Like fellow water signs, Cancer and Pisces, Scorpio is extremely clairvoyant and intuitive. Scorpio is ruled by Pluto, the planet that governs both destruction and transformation. On a good day, Scorpion energy is ambitious and enticing. On a bad day, however, the shadowy side of Scorpio is fueled by a relentless desire for control. Power-hungry Scorpions must remember that controlled by their egos, they are at risk of poisoning themselves. This sign is at its best when that intrinsic intensity is applied to deep, soulful connections with friends and lovers. When they build trust with others, Scorpions demonstrate unparalleled empathy, depth, and commitment that brighten even the darkest parts of Scorpio's magical psyche.

Photography, and Community Outreach Ministries. Justin is a Choir Director in training for the One Voice Choir and has recently started ministerial training, aspiring to become an ordained minister and a Choir Director.

Ambitions for the Future

Justin has clear goals for his future. Aside from his aspirations to become a Choir Director and eventually an ordained minister at church, he also has many educational goals. He aims to pursue a Bachelor's degree in Information Technology. His passion for music, aerospace, and cars continues to drive his hobbies and interests, and he finds joy in playing the piano and flying planes.

Joining the Jubilee Majestic Concert Choir

When asked what inspired him to join the Jubilee Majestic Concert Choir, Justin shared, "I love singing in choirs, and I heard the Majestics sing around Easter. I loved hearing how the choir sounded and wanted to be part of it." What does he enjoy most about being part of the Majestics? "I love focusing on parts, sound, the selection of songs, and the organization of the choir," he says. The Jubilee Majestic Concert Choir is thrilled to have Justin join us and looks forward to witnessing his continued growth and contributions to the choir. Welcome to the "King's Choir," Justin!
